Weinstein Center for Recreation and Wellness
Membership Subsidy Program

Weinstein Center for Recreation and Wellness Membership Subsidy Program is the result of a generous gift from a member who wanted to help subsidize the cost of the Weinstein Center memberships for people who may need financial assistance. Some of the basic guidelines:

- Anyone is eligible to apply
- Subsidized membership expires after one year
- Member must complete this Membership Subsidy Program Request Form
- Member receiving subsidy is eligible to reapply
- Member can request subsidy of 25%, 50%, or 75% of cost of membership; amount approved may be less
- All membership categories are options
- A committee of full-time Member Services TEAM members will review requests and make recommendations to Assistant Vice President of Recreation and Wellness
- Decisions will be based on the person's written justification to provide evidence of financial need
- The funding source is limited and the program will be discontinued when funds are exhausted
